not a pretty game for either team; each had close to 100 yards in penalties and five turnovers;
Maroons gained almost 300 yards in total offense;
beautiful night for football on home opener;
our equipment wouldn't work worth a smat most of the night.

beautiful field; beautiful weather; (I had decided to try cellular rechargeable batteries...and the first one went out late in the first half. I got the game on my cassette, but we were off the air about 15 minutes according to boardman Richard Hovis. Needless to say, we went to a plug-em-in unit the rest of the way.)

Madisonville dominated the game...even though the statistics don't show it.

Union County's deepest penetration was the Maroons 29 yard line in the 2nd quarter.

Stats: Mad 155 yards, U.C. 154, all but 4 of them in the air.

warm night for football, great playing conditions; Marshall County gained almost 300 yards... twice as much as the Maroons; Marshals are 5-1 for one of very few times in school history... if at all; they turned all 3 Maroons turnovers into touchdowns; at games end, both offensive star Ray Qualls and defensive star Cory Parks were out with injuries.

On the last play of the game, Hopkinsville had 10 players relatively close to the kick-receive line, thinking the Maroons would boot it short. Instead Jacob Keown lofted it high and far down the middle...and with four Maroons and just one Hopkinsville player chasing it, the ball went into the endzone by a yard. Had the Maroons covered it, they would have had time for one play to score, go for 2...and the tie.

Maroons were none of three passing; 193 total yards. Hoptown ran 30 times for 164 yards and threw 9 of 15 for 116 more.

There was a brief bench-clearing scuffle with a couple of minutes left; each team had a player thrown out; no other repercussions. More disappointing than ugly.

Ray Qualls threw some blocks, but was largely ineffective running on a bum ankle. Torius Mitchell ran for over 100 yards, but he was the ONLY weapon in a maroon shirt.

Great weather again.

Christian County had 389 yards (109 in the air); Madisonville 191...all on the ground.

For the 4th straight game, the Maroons did not complete a pass...going 0 for 2 this time.

Quarterback got the jitters in the 2nd half and either dropped the ball or bobbled it coming away from center many times...disrupting the offense.

Beautiful, a bit windy, beautiful pressbox, a bit hard to see that far from the field...might be time for those broadcasting bi-focals.

Color man Pat Ryan missed the game, so Andy & I went duo (as opposed to "solo".) Things went well in the booth.

Tory Ware rushed for 235 yards for C.C. Torius Mithcell almost got to 100 for the Maroons.

Madisonville started 9 seniors, 7 juniors, 5 sophomores and a freshman...and a dynamite frosh class coming. Sophs ain't too shabby.

No turnovers officially, but the Maroons let it hit the ground 7 times.
